SUBJECT The completion of the work, and what it owes to you

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Assalāmu 'alaykum wa raḥmatullāhi wa barakātuh,

Umm Abdillah,

My love, the work is finished, and it comes to you before anyone else: of everything I finish, none will ever mean to me what you mean. You were in its quiet hours, patient when I was buried in a page and never making me feel I had to choose — I have not said so often enough.

Go on with your studies and your work; let nothing make them smaller, least of all me. Rise, and I will stand for you first; let us walk as one, nothing asked of you that is not asked of me too.

May Allah elevate you, and fulfil for us what we hope for.

With love and respect,
Your Habeeb,

Ahmad
